Global Fund CRG Technical Assistance Directory

Greetings from the Regional Platform for Communication and Coordination for Anglophone Africa, hosted by EANNASO.

One of our key roles is to enhance knowledge of civil society and community groups on the Global Fund and access to technical assistance. Towards this objective, we are pleased to share with you a Global Fund Community, Rights and Gender (CRG) Technical Assistance Directory. The Directory is specifically tailored to civil society and community groups in Anglophone African countries.

In this Technical Assistance Directory you will find:

- Information about the Global Fund's CRG Technical Assistance program, including quick and easy hyperlinks to further guidance and to application materials
- A list of the pre-approved technical assistance providers who are either based in Anglophone African countries or who have been providing technical assistance there. This list includes contact details for each provider.

- A sample introductory email to help you get the conversation started with technical assistance providers in your region.
